The Right Reverend Adam J. Richardson, Jr.,
Senior Bishop (Ret.)

African Methodist Episcopal Church
115th Elected & Consecrated Bishop

Bishop Adam Jefferson Richardson, Jr. was elected and consecrated the 115th Bishop in the African Methodist Episcopal Church in 1996. He was assigned to the 14th Episcopal District, which includes six countries in West Africa. He has served as chair of the Lay Commission, the Health Commission, the Commission on Seminaries, Universities Colleges and Schools, and a member of the World Methodist Council. In 2002, Bishop Richardson was president of the Council of Bishops and Bishop of the 19th Episcopal District, headquartered in Johannesburg, South Africa.

In 2004, he was assigned to the 2nd Episcopal District which includes Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina and Washington, DC. For eight years, the District saw phenomenal growth in nearly every category of ministry endeavor, with attention given to social justice and civic engagement. Bishop and Mrs. Richardson took pride in the embrace of youth and young adult ministry. In 2012, Bishop Richardson was elected president of the AMEC's General Board and was assigned to the Eleventh Episcopal District, Florida and the Commonwealth of the Bahamas. For nine years, he chaired the Board of Edward Waters University in Jacksonville.

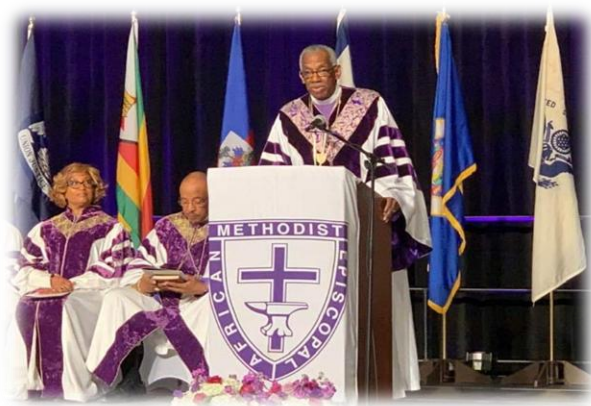

Before his election to the Episcopacy, he was pastor of Bethel AME Church, Tallahassee. For eighteen years, the congregation saw numerical growth, the founding of the Bethel CDC, new and expanded facilities, outreach to the poor and dispossessed, with an active community presence. A ten-acre camp was acquired called Bethel-By-The-Lake. In honor of Bishop and Mrs. Richardson, the well-appointed recreational site was renamed Camp Richardson.

Born in Clearwater, Florida, Bishop Richardson began his educational pursuit in the public schools of Tampa. He received the B.A. degree in Philosophy and Religion from Florida A&M University (where he was noted as the head drum major of the famed Marching '100' Band). He earned the Master of Divinity (M.Div.) degree from Turner Seminary at the Interdenominational Theological Center and the Doctor of Sacred Theology (STD) degree at ITC through the Atlanta Theological Association.

He has held faculty posts at the ITC, Morris Brown College in Atlanta, and adjunct instructor at FAMU. He was cited by Tallahassee Magazine as one of the most influential people of that city over the previous 15 years. Bishop Richardson has contributed articles in several publications, including: The African American Devotional Bible, 1997 (Conference of National Black Churches); Ain't That Good News, 1984 (Bishop G. G. M. Ingram, ed.); The Pastor's Manual of the AME Church (Dr. G. L. Champion, ed.). He has authored several manuals for discipleship training. In 2000, he published Headlines to Homilies: Sermons on Political, Commercial and Other Popular Annoyances. With a penchant for writing litanies, in 2012 he published, Let the Church Say Amen: Liturgy, Litany and Homily. In the wake of the massacre at Mother Emanuel in Charleston, he penned the widely circulated litany, The Doors of the Church are Still Open, and After the Vigil, Vigilance.

He is the recipient of honorary doctoral degrees from Bethune-Cookman University, Daytona Beach; Edward Waters University, Jacksonville; and Florida A&M University, Tallahassee. He has traveled to 61 countries and nation states. He and his wife of 56 years, Dr. Connie Speights, are the proud parents of Monique (an elected County Judge) and Trey (a radiographer with Master's degrees in Music Theory and Classical Saxophone Performance).

In 2021, Bishop Richardson's final Episcopal assignment was the 10th Episcopal District, embracing the state of Texas. He serves on the Board of the Conference of National Black Churches and has also chaired Boards at the ITC, Edward Waters University, and Paul Quinn College in Dallas, Texas. He was inducted to the prestigious Martin Luther King, Jr. Board of Preachers at Morehouse College. Now retired, he is the immediate past Senior Bishop of the African Methodist Episcopal Church.
